Chapter 1 by Isaiah White-York

Once upon a time there were three kids in an ordinary abandoned house the kids where kids except the three kids were ghost in the night who wondered the country side waiting and scaring the children that dared to walk in their scary ugly manor they had no names because they couldn't remeber how they died they were all siblings they knew that much. One scary and dark night they all went to scare some unsepecting children they phased through the ugly door and as they phased through there was a loud creak like a banchee so they flew around town with there heads morphed into a ugly beast their teeth was sharp and pointed like a pirranha their eyes were all black like a vampire and their nails were bloody and sharp like a butcher knife a they saw their first prey a kid that looked like he was 6 years old he was just walking with his head down he looked sad the ghost kids didn't care so they hid behind a bush with one looking to give the signal to scare him the ghost pirranha mouth was drooling as they breathed lounding and lounding as the hunger of scaring turned in a blackout of a lust of blood and gluttony the kid got closer and closer until a large tear like ripping a towl came to be before the ghost knew it there was blood all over there claws and the kid looked up to see what happened it was a large tear in the boys chest the ghost boys hunger started making voices eat him eat him the boy had not lost that much blood he ran and ran and when he looked behind him he thought he lost them but when he looked up all that happened was a white light the first ghost had ripped out the boys little heart literally it pumped for a few seconds while squirting blood the stopped the lust had completely consumed the boys they lost control of there bodies their bodies wheir
